Music in the parking lot

Love local music? You can hear a whole lot of it on Saturday, May 31, from noon until 1 a.m. inside and outside Tierney's Tavern, 136-138 Valley Road. The free event is for all ages until 8 p.m., and 21 and over from 8 until closing.

The Tierney's Tavern Music Festival celebrates its 80th year in business. The bar's slogan is "Where friends meet, since 1934." Three stages, including a parking lot stage, will showcase music, rain or shine. The bands scheduled to play are bands that have been playing at Tierney's over the years: Accidental Seabirds,

Bern & the Brights, The Defending Champions, The Fabulous Flemtones, Billy Hector, The Jamesons, Jenny & the Bets, Kagero, Kiwi, Lil' Bastad, Terry McCarthy, Michaela McClain, The Porchistas, Rainbow Fresh, Terry McCarthy, Thing One, Thomas Wesley Stern, Tip Canary, Watchung Mountain Riders, and more TBA.

There will be a dunk tank, vendors, beer trucks, food trucks and more. For more information and updated info, visit tierneystavern.com. Look for more in The Montclair Times' Arts section next week.
